

Bundling Maintenance

WE'VE GOT YOU COVERED

TAMCO®

What is the impact on your business if your lines of communication went down, surveillance solution stopped working, or AV equipment wasn't operating effectively? Technology is woven into the fabric of everything we do today to stay productive. Therefore, bundling in multiyear maintenance and support service agreements at the point of sale is one of the smartest decisions you can make.

Have you heard the adage, "failing to prepare is preparing to fail"? Bundling your multiyear maintenance and support services on your technology equipment is your way of making sure you are prepared when things go wrong.

If you bundle your multiyear maintenance and support services at the point of sale with a TAMCO monthly payment option, like our technology-as-a-service solution, you are setting yourself up for success because:

1. Maintenance is bundled in with your hardware as one low monthly payment
2. No additional finance charges
3. You get to lock in today's labor rates for the length of the term
4. You avoid costly price tags if you need a fix when something goes wrong
5. Have peace of mind that you are protected

Whether you are procuring an AV solution, security system, data networking gear, or any other related technology hardware, keep your technology working. Keep it functioning effectively for its entire lifespan. Avoid impacting your bottom line and being vulnerable. Choose to bundle in your service agreement right into your
